How often does Snapchat update your best friends list?

Snapchat updates the Best Friends list regularly to reflect your current interactions with other users. The exact frequency of updates is not disclosed by Snapchat, but it is believed to be done on a daily or weekly basis. This means that your Best Friends list can change over time as your communication patterns evolve.

How long does a Snapchat friend stay on your list?

Snapchat only looks at the last week or so when it calculates your Best Friends list, so you can't just exchange a thousand messages with someone one day and expect them to stay on your friends list forever. Although they may appear there for a moment, they'll eventually fall off as your contact with them dwindles to zero.

Can you see your best friends on Snapchat?

The best friends list is private. You're the only person who can see your best friends on Snapchat. The people you have on the best friends list can see that they're your best friend but don't have access to the entire list and can't see who else is your best friend on Snapchat.

How long does Super BFF last on Snapchat?

The Super BFF feature on Snapchat, which allows you and a friend to maintain a streak even if you don't exchange snaps for a day, lasts two weeks (14 days). During this time, you and your friend can maintain your streak without sending snaps to each other every day.

Do you have a best friend list on Snapchat?

Not necessarily. The best friends feature is determined individually for each user on Snapchat. Just because someone is listed as your best friend does not guarantee you are also their best friend. The best friends list is based on the frequency and intensity of your interactions with other Snapchat users.

What happens if you have more than 8 friends on Snapchat?

If you have more than eight friends on Snapchat, you'll still have to exchange messages, react to their Snapchat stories, and have streaks with them if you want people to move from your friends list to the best friends category. It's relatively easy to make someone become your best friend on Snapchat.
