The Lance 2285 has a dry tongue weight of 615 lbs. and 750 lbs. when loaded. For such weight, a size 2-inch ball would be perfect. Thus, if you're looking for a hitch ball that's suitable for a Lance 2285, you should look for a size 2-inch ball.

Solar has nothing to do with operation of microwave & plugs - to use those, you'll need a/c power, not DC. Solar merely charges the batteries (DC power). To use the microwave and A/C plugs when without electricity, you'll either have to run a generator (we have a Honda 2000) or have an inverter installed (with sufficient battery power).
