Where can I find my Google Maps?

If you go into your Google photos app and click on the " search " function, a screen will come up that allows you to search your photos by people and pets, documents, things, and of course, places. It's here in the " places " folder that you can find your personal, somewhat hidden map. (1) For some, there might be a square that says " your map . " ;

Google Maps provides users with detailed maps of locations worldwide. You can search for specific addresses, landmarks, businesses, or points of interest, and it will display relevant information and locations on the map. Google Maps is available as a website and as a mobile application for iOS and Android devices.

What is Google Maps Live View?

Last year, Google introduced Live View to Maps, overlaying your surroundings with augmented reality. Live View relies on machine learning, smartphone sensors and the real-world imagery provided by the Google Maps Street View feature. The new feature helps you figure out which way to go when starting a walking route.
