

Saritha nair solar company

Who is Saritha S Nair?

Six years of rigorous imprisonment and fine was slapped on controversial entrepreneur Saritha S Nair, who was found guilty in a cheating case related to setting up of solar panels. Saritha Nair coming out of the Kozhikode Judicial Magistrate Court on Tuesday |Express

Who is Saritha Nair & Biju Radhakrishnan?

Saritha Nair was the second accused in the case related to the infamous scam. Judicial first class magistrate-III K Nimmi acquitted the third accused B Manimon, while the verdict of Biju Radhakrishnan, the first accused in this case, was put on hold for pronouncement later as he had applied for leave for being under quarantine.

What was the 2013 Kerala solar panel scam?

The 2013 Kerala solar panel scam occurred in 2013, when a solar energy company, Team Solar, in Kerala, India, used two women to create political contacts with links including to the Chief Minister's office.

Was team solar unsuccessful in lobbying Kerala Govt to get ANERT programme?

Team Solar was unsuccessful in lobbying Kerala Govt to get their firm included in ANERT programmes. The Team Solar Energy Company (Team Solar), floated by the main accused Biju Radhakrishnan and Saritha. S.

Who is Saritha Nair & Tenny Joppan?

The chief accused, Saritha Nair and one of the Chief Minister's personal aides Tenny Joppan has been fired and arrested. The director of the Public Relations Department, who allegedly received Rs 500,000 from the Team Solar man, has been suspended and has gone underground fearing arrest.

How did Saritha S Nair & Biju Radhakrishnan defraud people?

Saritha S Nair and her accomplice Biju Radhakrishnan defrauded many people by promising to instal solar panels and offering franchises and jobs in their company, Team Solar Renewable Energy Solutions Company. (Source: Facebook/SarithaNair)

Coimbatore: In a cheating case promising to set up windmills, Saritha S Nair, main accused in the solar scam that rocked Kerala during previous Congress-led UDF rule, and two others were on Thursday sentenced to three years imprisonment by a court here. ... who were directors in the ICMS Power company, guilty of cheating two investors in the ...

In June 2013, the Kerala police arrested Nair and two weeks later, her live-in partner Radhakrishnan. They were both business partners in a Kochi-based firm, Team Solar Renewable Energy Solutions Pvt Limited, which offered solar energy solutions to institutions and households. In the beginning, it was a simple case of cheating.

Saritha nair solar company

Saritha Nair, main accused in the solar scam that rocked Kerala during previous Congress-led UDF rule, and two others were on Thursday sentenced to three years imprisonment by a court here in a windmill cheating case. Sixth Judicial Magistrate K R Kannan held Saritha, her husband Biju Radhakrishnan and C Ravi, who were directors in the ICMS Power ...

A Kerala court on Friday sentenced Saritha Nair and Biju Radhakrishnan, prime accused in the sensational solar scam, to three years in jail and slapped a fine of Rs 10,000 each.

The primary accused in the Kerala solar panel scam of 2013, Saritha S Nair and her husband were sentenced to three years in Jail by a Coimbatore court on Thursday, 31 October, according to The ...

The 2016 "Solar Scam" was one of the factors responsible for the rout of the Oomen Chandy-led government in 2016. Nair alleged that the Congress leaders had sought sexual favours for promoting Team Solar, a company promoted by Nair and Biju Radhakrishnan. The firm provides solar energy to home and business establishments in Kerala.

The verdict was announced based on a case filed by Kozhikode native Abdul Majeed of St Vincent Colony accusing Saritha of cheating him to the tune of Rs 42.60 lakh after promising to install solar ...

Never seen Saritha in life: Abdullakutty. Saritha S. Nair, the second accused in the solar scam, on Monday submitted the CDs and other digital evidence containing her alleged conversations with Congress leader Thampanoor Ravi, Benny Behnan MLA and Salim Raj before the commission probing the multi-crore scam.

The commission also found that the Ministers who inaugurated the projects of Saritha Nair's Team Solar company, the MLAs who recommended the company for installing solar street lights in their constituencies and helped in closing criminal cases against Saritha, and (Pradesh Congress Committee general secretary) Thampanoor Ravi and MLA Benny ...

Saritha Nair, the main accused in Kerala's multi-crore solar panel scam(HT Photo) ... Saritha and Biju entered the solar business in 2010 and formed a fictitious company called Team Solar. In ...

A court on Tuesday sentenced con woman Saritha S Nair to six years rigorous imprisonment in a cheating case related to the solar panel scam that rocked Kerala during the previous Congress-led UDF rule. Saritha Nair was the second accused in the case related to the infamous scam.

A Kerala court on Friday sentenced Saritha Nair and Biju Radhakrishnan, prime accused in the sensational solar scam, to three years in jail and slapped a fine of Rs 10,000 each. | Latest News India

Nair, who floated a company to sell solar panels, is accused of cheating the public and using contacts in the chief minister's office and names of other influential Congress leaders to buy favours. ... Kerala solar scam: Prime accused Saritha Nair, husband get three-year jail Nair, who floated a company to sell solar panels, is accused of ...

Saritha nair solar company

The Kozhikode Judicial First Class Magistrate court on Tuesday sentenced solar scam accused Saritha S Nair to six years" rigorous imprisonment in a cheating case registered against her by Kasaba ...

Kozhikode: The court has found Saritha S Nair guilty in the solar scam case. Kozhikode Magistrate court pronounced the verdict in the case on Tuesday. The quantum of punishment will be announced ...

Kozhikode: Solar scam accused Saritha S Nair has been awarded 6 years of jail term and a penalty of Rs 30,000 in connection with the case. The quantum of punishment was announced by the Kozhikode ...

Saritha S. Nair, solar-scam accused, told the District and Sessions Court Judge, Ashok Menon, on Monday that from personal experience, she strongly believed that the co-accused, Biju Radhakrishnan ...

The Kozhikode Judicial First Class Magistrate's Court on Tuesday sentenced Saritha S. Nair to six-year rigorous imprisonment (RI) and slapped a fine of INR40,000 in connection with a solar ...

A Coimbatore court on Thursday sentenced entrepreneur Saritha Nair and her husband Biju Radhakrishnan to three years imprisonment in connection with the solar panel scam case.

solar scam. A brilliant student and a swift riser, Saritha S Nair always had admirers and notable friends. Arun Janardhanan speaks to the woman at the centre of the solar scandal ...

In the latest twist in the Solar Scam, co-accused Saritha Nair on Friday claimed that CM Oommen Chandy asked her to form a company with his son Chandy Oommen, as its director and with other family ...

Kochi: Facing non-bailable arrest warrant, prime accused in Kerala's solar panel scam Saritha S. Nair on Monday appeared before the judicial commission probing the scandal and was cross-examined by counsel of former chief minister Oommen Chandy and other Congress leaders against whom she had levelled serious allegations.

Solar scam accused Saritha Nair in Kochi on Monday. (PTI Photo) February 7. While in jail near Thiruvananthapuram, Saritha wrote a letter naming VVIPs who had allegedly used her physically promising solar business contracts. A set of videos of her in the nude, which she says she shot for private use, soon hit the media -- a leak by police, she ...

Saritha nair solar company

Web: <https://ekusenitours.co.za>