Which companies are best for solar in Massachusetts?

Here are the top companies we recommend for solar in Massachusetts: Originally starting by serving New England for over 6 years, Lunex Powers employees are directly responsible for the installation and procurement of over 15MW of installed solar capacity; that's nearly 1800 average-sized residential solar projects. Our goal is...

Are solar panels a good investment in Massachusetts?

Luckily, even though solar panels are an investment, homeowners in Massachusetts can be assured that it will pay off over time. According to the Solar Energy Industries Association (SEIA), Massachusetts is currently ranked #11 in the country for solar power.

Is Sunrun a good solar company in Massachusetts?

Sunrun is another big name you'll likely come across when researching solar leases in Massachusetts. Sunrun doesn't have a great reputation among customers or solar industry pros, so we don't recommend doing business with this company. What are the best solar companies for zero-down solar loans in Massachusetts?

How much does solar cost in Massachusetts?

The average price of solar is about $2.3 to $3.44 per watt in Massachusetts, so anything in that range is a fair price. Some prices may be too good to be true. If your installer quotes you way below the average price in your area, proceed with caution.

Is Massachusetts a good state to go solar?

Despite getting less sun, Massachusetts is actually one of the best states in the country to go solar because of high electricity prices and solar-friendly policies. You might just need a bigger solar system because there are fewer sunny days. If you choose reliable installers, you can trust that these estimates will be as accurate as possible.

Are solar loans a good idea in Massachusetts?

Solar loans are popular among homeowners because you don't have to have the money for the installation upfront, but you get better lifetime savings than with a leased system. You also get to directly use the incentives (tax credits, rebates, etc.) available in Massachusetts, rather than a leasing company retaining them.
